

FREEZE PLAY Ô Game Questions

For group activity in hardcopy, print and then cut along dotted lines to separate questions. Follow instructions provided. Use with study guide for answers and discussions. Learn the basic language and facts about HIV. Empower yourself.

QUESTION 1

What does HIV stand for?

- a. Human Immunodeficiency Virus
- b. Human Immune Virus
- c. Highly Infectious Virus
- d. Human Infectious Virus

QUESTION 2

What does AIDS stand for?

- a. Actual Immune Deficiency Syndrome
- b. Active Immune Deficiency Syndrome
- c. Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome
- d. Auto-immune Deficiency Syndrome

QUESTION 3

HIV can be passed (transmitted) to a person through the following:

- a. Toilet seats
- b. Blood, semen, vaginal secretions, breast milk, sharing used or unclean needles
- c. Sharing food and water
- d. Hugs

QUESTION 4

A mother who has HIV can prevent passing (transmitting) infection to her baby.

- a. True
- b. False

QUESTION 5

A person with HIV who is healthy can pass on (transmit) HIV to another person.

- a. True b. False
-

QUESTION 6

HIV can be prevented.

- a. True b. False
-

QUESTION 7

A person can get HIV by being at the same school or workplace as someone who does have HIV.

- a. True b. False

QUESTION 8

Antiretroviral medications can work against HIV when they are taken.

- a. True b. False

QUESTION 9

In the United States, HIV/AIDS has affected African American and Hispanic communities more than other ethnicities.

- a. True b. False

QUESTION 10

Confidentiality rights of persons with HIV/AIDS are protected under Texas law.

- a. True b. False
-

BONUS QUESTION

The quality of life of persons infected and/or affected by HIV can be enhanced in several ways.

- a. True b. False

Name and discuss ways of having a quality life.

Proceed to Freeze Play Workshop now or at another session.

FREEZE PLAY[®] is an educational product of
Kids' Council-Caregivers' League for community youth
Copyright 2004, Texas Children's Hospital-Baylor College of Medicine
Allergy & Immunology and Pediatrics, Lenora M. Noroski, MD Houston, Texas