

Nursing Research Grant Rubric

Category	0-2=Poor Minimal	3-5=Fair Vague	6-8=Good Adequate	9-10=Exceptional Thorough
Background & Significance Why is this study important for nursing practice and the development of new knowledge, does it address a gap in what we know, will it lead to enhanced outcomes for children, women and families?
Aims/Purpose/Hypothesis/Research Question
Methods Study design is appropriate to answer research question, including population sample and setting/adequacy of human subjects' protection
Methods Measures/tools/instruments & data collection procedures:
Analysis related to the design: statistical plan/ qualitative analysis as indicated
Feasibility Based on timeline & available resources
Current APA Reference Majority within past 5 years
Alignment with Nursing Strategic Plan
Research Team Appropriate content experts
Budget Realistic justification

Note: Adapted from the Society of Pediatric Nursing grant review rubric

Updated 5/5/2021