

Pediatric Anesthesiology

MOCA[®] Simulation Course

Scan the QR code to view MOCA course dates or visit texaschildrens.org/moca

Texas Children's Hospital[®]

Pediatric Anesthesiology

Maintenance of Certification in Anesthesiology (MOCA®) Simulation Course with AHA PALS Recertification

Course participants receive

- Up to 8.5 Category 1 AMA PRA CME credits reported directly to the American Board of Anesthesiology
- 2 hours of credits in medical ethics and/or professional responsibility – fulfilling the Texas Medical Board requirement
- 25 ABA MOCA 2.0 Part 4 points
- Early registration discount

Course location

Texas Children's Hospital
Simulation Center
Feigin Tower, Floor 19
1102 Bates Avenue
Houston, Texas 77030

Additional information and registration

Visit: texaschildrens.org/MOCA

Email: Lisa Caplan, MD, FASA (course director) at lacaplan@texaschildrens.org

Course highlights

- Pediatric anesthesiology topics and teamwork principles are equally emphasized.
- Topics are designed for all anesthesiologists who care for pediatric patients.
- All requirements have been incorporated to provide the maximum 25 MOCA 2.0 Part 4 points.
- Confidential debriefing sessions will occur after all simulation exercises.
- Participants will receive a new AHA PALS provider card upon successful completion of the PALS HeartCode® module and simulation course.

Course presented by

