Now Hiring

Join our nationally recognized pediatric hematology-oncology team at Baylor College of Medicine, where you'll deliver exceptional care, collaborate with leading specialists, and grow in a dynamic, academic hospital environment.

Why Join Us?

- Be part of one of the largest pediatric hematology-oncology programs in the U.S.
- Collaborate with world-renowned academic faculty, subspecialty fellows and advanced practice providers
- Work in a dynamic, hospital-based setting
- Gain in-depth experience caring for a diverse patient population with complex presentations

Texas Children's

Baylor College of Medicine

Pediatric Hospitalists and Nocturnists

- Board-eligible or board-certified pediatricians or Pediatric Hematologist-Oncologists
- Prior to employment start date must obtain Texas Medical License and Drug Enforcement Administration registration
- Individuals with strong clinical, communication and time management skills

HOW TO APPLY

Submit your (1) CV, (2) statement of career interests to Tim Porea, MD, tjporea@texaschildrens.org

Assistant Professor, Vannie Cook Cancer and Hematology Clinic, McAllen, TX

- Board-certified or board-eligible Pediatric Hematologist-Oncologist
- Desire to practice comprehensive hematology and oncology care
- Strong interest in primarily clinical role
- Passion for serving underserved communities
- Excellent clinical, communication, and time management skills
- Spanish language proficiency preferred

HOW TO APPLY

Submit your CV to Stefany Levrier, LMSW, Division Administrator, Clinical Division and Community Sites, sllevrie@texaschildrens.org

Instructor - Nurse Practitioner or Physician Assistant (Inpatient)

For Nurse Practitioners

- Master's degree in Nursing; Acute Care Certification (CPNP-AC) required
- Current license as a Registered Nurse (RN) by the State of Texas Board of Nursing; Current Texas Licensure as an Advanced Practice Nurse (APRN); and acute care certification (CPNP-AC)

For Physician Assistants

- Master's degree in Physician Assistant Studies
- NOTE: Bachelor's degree in Physician Assistant Studies accepted based on terminal degree requirements at time of graduation
- Current license as a Physician Assistant by the State of Texas Physician Assistant Board; specialty certification as required by department
- Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS) certifications

HOW TO APPLY: Submit your CV to Shelby R. Boone, MSN, APRN, CPNP-AC, CPN, Director, APPs, Shelby.Boone@bcm.edu

